CHERYL M. REYES, Defendant)
)

On May 24, 2005, Cheryl Maratita Reyes was sentenced for the offense of Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 371 and 1344. She received five years probation with the following conditions: that she not commit another federal, state, or local crime; that she not unlawfully possess a controlled substance and refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance; that she submit to one drug test within 15 days of sentencing and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter; that she submit to the collection of a DNA sample as directed by the probation officer; that she comply with the standard conditions of probation; that she serve six months of home detention with electronic monitoring; that she is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without approval of the probation officer unless she is in compliance with the payment schedule; that she provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information; that she perform 300 hours of community service; that she pay a $100 special assessment fee; and that she pay restitution in the amount of $37,584.63, with monthly payments set at $200 per month. Ms. Reyes has been on probation since May 24, 2005.

Ms. Reyes is compliant with the terms of her probation. She paid her special assessment fee on May 25, 2005. She completed her drug testing requirement on November 29, 2005 and submitted to DNA collection on June 10, 2005. She completed her term of home detention on December 10, 2006. She completed her community service on August 1, 2007. Additionally, she continues to make $250 monthly payments toward her restitution obligation.
